

12 October 2012

Dear Members

I am writing this letter on what promises to be a brighter day, but I have just heard from Raymond that the river has overflowed as it passes through our village – a reminder that a blue-ish sky with clouds that are mostly white does not guarantee good weather. We must be thankful that we do not live in that village in North Devon!

This is a reminder that our next meeting will be on Thursday, October 18th, in the William Williams Hall at the usual time. Our speaker – not as advertised in our programme – will be Mrs Samira Andrews and her subject is Lawrence of Arabia. He is one of the most fascinating men in the history of the 19th century, as you will know if you have seen the film “Laurence of Arabia”, and if you haven’t seen the film, so come and hear about him! And bring your friends!

I have missed the chance of having this letter copied by the hospital in Blandford, but Mike is going to use his scanner to do the copying, and we can post them to you this afternoon.

Those of you who were present at the AGM will have heard me read the letter from Jean Churchill in which she suggested that it might be better to have our meetings in the afternoon; let me know what you think!

Looking forward to seeing you on Thursday,

Sincerely,

Isabel Weiner
